OPERATIONS UNDER COVID-19

The onset of COVID-19 caused Piccolo to reassess our growth and trajectory for 2020 and 2021, but with careful management of resources we have continued to expand. The company remains on sound financial footing, and has continued to grow at a sustainable rate throughout 2020.

We have been a remote workplace since our inception in 2014 with limited in person meetings. In March of 2020, we quickly transitioned to a 100% work-from-home stance in response to the threat from COVID-19. We will continue to work in a 100% remote environment until further notice.

As the threat to public health from COVID-19 declines, we will evaluate our return to in person meetings as needed.
